BAKER TO VISIT CAMPS IN WEST.

Secretary and Gen. March to Make Inspection Trip.

California and Mexican Border in Itinerary.

Army has Funds Despite Failure of Bill.

ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P. 1.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Secretary Baker plans to leave Washington Sunday accompanied by Gen. March, Chief of Staff, for an inspection trip that will take him to the Pacific coast and the Mexican border.

The object of the trip, which will occupy about three weeks, is to permit the Secretary and Gen. March to visit camps which during the war they were unable to inspect.

The tentative itinerary will take them to Camp Custer, Mich.; Dodge, Iowa; Funston, Kansas; Lewis, Washington; Marry, California; Fort Bliss, Fort Worth and Camp Bowie, Texas; Camp Pike, Ark., and Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky.

Failure of the army appropriation bill and other military measures to pass before Congress adjourned, leaves the War Department in a "difficult but not a serious situation," Secretary Baker said today.

No immediate shortage of funds to care for the troops is in prospect.

Mr. Baker said his greatest regret was that failure of the army reorganization bill meant that a number of men of the war-time army must remain in the service for a longer time than would have been necessary otherwise.

Senator Moses of New Hampshire, Republican, in a statement today declared failure of President Wilson to call an extra session of Congress to pass, among other measures, the army appropriation bill, would mean "that nearly 500,000 homes in the United States must continue to see their sons held for military service on foreign soil."

There are Senators on both sides of the chamber who believe that the President's dogged refusal to summon Congress, save when he pleases, is the statement said, "is due to his desire to monopolize the center of the international stage to use the megaphone of the Paris Peace Conference for presenting his appeal for a spurious league of peace."

Soldiers, honorably discharged since October 8, 1917, for disability incurred in line of duty and who again become incapacitated because of such disability are entitled to free hospital care under the provisions of the war insurance act.

FITZGERALD MUSIC COMPANY

KNABE AMPICO Reproducing Piano NEW EDISON Re-Creating Instrument

Twin Pinnacles of the Art of Music's Reproduction

Through the one—the Knabe Ampico Reproducing Piano—you may invoke the art of the greatest living pianists, so realistically that the artists themselves say the reproduction of their playing is identical with the original.

Through the other—the New Edison—you may wield the power of a king to call before you the foremost singers and entertainers and enjoy their art in all its vivid realism.

The Fitzgerald Music Company feels that it can in no way give practical effect to its principle of sincere service and helpfulness better than by recommending either or both of these instruments to you. We invite you to hear them without obligation, and assure you of every accommodation on our part in helping you to secure them with convenience.

TEACH DISLOYALTY TO THEIR CHILDREN.

MAN AND WIFE QUESTIONED AT SANTA ANA DECLARE DISBELIEF IN GOVERNMENT.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.] SANTA ANA, March 4.—That he doesn't believe in government and had instructed his children not to salute the flag or sing patriotic songs in school along with the other children was the statement of Ralph E. Crandall, 1802 West Fifth street, when called before the County Council of Defense. Mrs. Crandall echoed her husband's views. They were questioned at length as to their attitude and beliefs, and a transcript of the testimony will be sent to the Department of Justice.

Mr. and Mrs. Crandall came here three weeks ago from Connecticut, and say they belong to a branch of the Quakers who believe in no government. Along with a few others of like belief, they have been holding services each Sunday at the home of Mrs. Crandall's father, Joseph Crouch, west of Santa Ana. Crandall declared his religion had taught him not to have anything to do with government. He admitted he paid taxes on property in Connecticut and had voted in a township election here but immediately after the election he had been "converted" and hadn't voted since.

"You people here were but eight people saved in Noah's time," Crandall said, "and today if judgment came it would be a close call if five out of a thousand were saved."

Among those who have been attending the Crouch services who do not believe in government, according to Crandall, are George E. Phillips of Garden Grove, P. J. Crouch and Elmer Watrous.

DENIES EMBEZZLEMENT INDIAN WIFE'S FUNDS.

OKLAHOMA MAN HELD AT LONG BEACH ON FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE CHARGE.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.] LONG BEACH, March 4.—Alleged to have taken "French leave" in his Indian wife's automobile and embezzled a sufficient sum to defray a joy ride from Oklahoma to California, James H. Young, aged 30 years, is being held in the Long Beach City Jail on a charge of being a fugitive from justice.

Mrs. Young, a young Ojawa squaw, is said to be worth more than $100,000 and desires the return of her husband not for revenge, it is said, but because of her love of the white man.

Mr. Young declines to waive extradition, so an officer from Oklahoma is en route to Long Beach with extradition papers and to try to return with the prisoner.

Through his attorneys, Swaffield & Swaffield, of this city, Mr. Young declares the automobile, although in his wife's name, was purchased with his own money and that he did not embezzle any sum from his wife.

His version of the affair is that he and his wife motored to Colorado and that she returned to Oklahoma and he came on to California. He says this, practically agreed to separate. He stoutly denies any embezzlement charge.

GERMANY'S ARCHIVES APT TO STAY LOCKED.

GOVERNMENT OPPOSED TO PUBLISHING PRE-WAR CORRESPONDENCE JUST NOW.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P. 1.] BERLIN, Monday, March 4.—The Foreign Office and the government in general have not only taken no steps to publish the promised white book with the full German diplomatic foreign correspondence covering the outbreak of the war, but they are decidedly opposed to any such publication before the conclusion of peace. Their spokesmen argue that the one-sided publication by Germany of such correspondence before the Entente governments, likewise lay open their archives, would be a technical mistake.

This also is the view of the great mass of men prominent in business and political life who have discussed the question with the correspondents. Only a few of the radical Socialists like Karl Kaestky, who no longer have access to the German archives, believe that Germany should print these documents for the judgment of the world.

Instead of publishing this correspondence, a new edition of the documents alleged to have been taken from the Belgian archives at Brussels now is being brought out. The government launches this publication with its blessing in a column and a half review in the official North German Gazette, under the heading, "New Documents Concerning the Outbreak of the World War."

An idea of the argument made by the official organ may be found in the following quotation from the article: "When three or four bandits surround a peaceful traveler and keep closing in on him until, in recognition of his danger, he strikes out in self-defense, is it, forthwith, inexcusable that he does not wait for them to spring upon him, and is his guilt for the blows and the bloodshed?"

The Gazette's only admission that there was considerable sinning on the German, as well as on the other side, is in the tactical handling of the Anglo-German difficulties, but after citing briefly a number of what it declared are hitherto unpublished Belgian diplomatic reports, it claims that these show a steady policy on the part of Russia, France and England to incite peace-loving Germany and that the documents gravely compromise the Entente Powers in connection with responsibility for the war.

Publication will include documents from 1897 to 1914, but the two volumes now issued only cover the subjects, entitled "The Dual Alliance," "Morocco Crisis—King Edward," bringing the documents up to 1907. These volumes were issued today.

WILL ENLARGE PARK MUSEUM.

Two Hundred Thousand Dol-

Present Building Overstocked

by Mass of Exhibits.

New Structure will Change Art

Gallery's Shape.

A $200,000 addition to the county museum and art gallery at Exposition Park is planned by the board of governors of the Museum of History, Science and Art, according to an announcement made yesterday by W. M.

Bowen, a member of the board.

The present building is T-shaped and is greatly overstocked by the large number of exhibits that have accumulated during the past two years. The board has had plans for a new unit drawn, and these have already been approved. This unit will make the present building already overflowing.

"We shall have to secure the money for the new building by an appropriation through the county board of supervisors," said Mr.

Bowen last night, "and it is unlikely that action will be taken before next year. We expect, however, to erect the building by 1920, as the basement of the present structure is

Interrupted Negotiations for

The nation-wide scope of the government's case against Mrs. Myrna Northcutt, wife of Lieut. Carlton

Northcutt, was partially revealed in San Francisco yesterday, when the hearing of Gowling on Mann Act charges involving Mrs. Northcutt was continued for a week pending the arrival of government witnesses called from Duluth. Inasmuch as the federal case against Mrs. Northcutt and Gowling technically date to date into the past history of the defendants, both former residents of Wisconsin, came as a surprise.

United States Commissioner Krull

declined to give out the names or number of the witnesses coming from the East.

Gowling has been in jail since his arrest last Friday in default of $1000 bonds. Yesterday, with the consent of Assistant United States Attorney

Trombulo, Commissioner Krull reduced these to $500, which Gowling was able to furnish, and was released.

HELD WITH LABORER FOR IN-VESTIGATION OF DEATH

OF RANCH HAND.

As the result of the death at the County Hospital Monday of Perry

Brewer, a ranch hand, who was found unconscious in a shack near Calabasas fifteen days before, two men were lodged in the City Jail yesterday on suspicion of murder.

All Brewer was able to tell about his condition was that "a mule had kicked him." However, Edward Branscom, 25, whose family owns

1600 acres of land in the San Fernando Valley, and Edward W. Newell, 42, laborer, were taken with

Brewer on February 21. It is said all three were drinking heavily, and when arrested Branscom and Newell told officers E. H. Wells of Hollywood and Detective Sergeant

Hermann Cline that the quarrel was started by Brewer, and that they didn't know what happened to him afterward. He was found suffering in the shack two days later, suffer-

TO BE COUNTRY'S FINEST.

Work on Five-Million-Dollar Marine Base

at San Diego Soon Under Way.

Work on the first group of buildings of the proposed Marine Corps base on Dutch Flats, San Diego, which will be the largest and finest of its kind in the country, will be begun soon, it was announced yesterday. Bids for the building of seven barracks, the contract for which will total about $1,500,000, were opened Monday morning at the office of Commander Norman M.

Smith, public works officer of the Twelfth Naval District. At the same time the bids were opened in Washington.

The bids of the Clinton Construction Company of San Francisco and of the Dawson Construction Company of Pittsburgh were the lowest, when certain deductions were made.

They were: Dawson Construction

Company, $1,094,157, and Clinton

Construction Company, $1,124,415.

The cost of the marine base complete, as proposed, will be about $1,000,000. Over forty buildings are included in the proposed plans for Less than twenty-four hours after committing one of the boldest roberies in local records, the man and woman bandits who held up Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gubin at their home on

167 South Crenshaw boulevard

Monday night, were lodged in the City Jail.

Isaac Bickoff, a Russian, was the first arrested, being taken into custody by Detective Louis and Tom Rico, Smith and Finlison in his room at 1411 Albany street.

Captain of Detectives Home, Bickoff made a complete confession. On his person was found all of the Gubin jewelry with the exception of two large diamonds and a watch, which he admitted selling yesterday morning in Long Beach. He also implicated his female accomplice, stating that he knew her under the name of Mrs. Kidd. An Annie she

OBJECTORS TO THE PEACE LEAGUE

IN THE SENATE.

Just as the height of a tower can be measured by its shadow, the importance of the League of Nations may be judged from the criticism aimed at its constitution. The commissioners representing the five great powers that crushed Germany were unanimous in their endorsement of the league plan. It has met with the almost unanimous approval of the neutral countries; yet, curiously enough, while the greatest exponent in the President of the United States, more criticism of the plan has come from the Federal Senate than from any other source outside the Central Powers.

One does not have to look far beneath the surface to discover the cause of the opposition in this country to the league constitution, while it is generally accepted in Europe and Asia. During the last hundred years the American people have loved their independence almost as they have loved their God. The great European powers have always been united in some form of alliance and none of them has trusted to its unsupported strength to protect it against the rest of the world. Leagues and ententes have been formed and dissolved in an attempt to maintain that delicate diplomatic balance known as the European equilibrium. The most successful ministry has been that which formed the most powerful connections. Such a policy is as foreign to American ideas of government as crowns and royal lives.

Popular opinion has attributed America's progress and independence to two well-established policies, that formulated by Washington when he declared against all entangling alliances and that promulgated by Monroe in his celebrated Monroe Doctrine. She strikes at one of these has been held to aim at the heart of the republic.

Senator Lodge has founded his objections to the league constitution on the Monroe Doctrine, which he says will be nullified if the Senate approves the treaty necessary to form a League of Nations. President Wilson has replied that Senator Lodge places a construction on the constitution of the league which its wording does not justify. In his last Senate address Senator Lodge said that three lines written into the league constitution would maintain the Monroe Doctrine in its integrity and a semi-official statement from Washington is to the effect that the amendment would not be objectionable. If this proves to be true one of the meatiest bones of contention has already been removed.

But it is not so easy to dispose of the argument against European alliances. Senator Sherman has placed an extreme construction on certain sections of the league constitution which, if accepted, would give to the executive council of the league the power to arbitrate all questions relating to tariffs, immigration laws, armaments, exports and imports, industrial disputes and class animosities. Other Senators have viewed the constitution with less alarm, but with an evident desire to destroy, rather than to fortify.

Under the head of alliances comes the question of limitation of armaments. Article 8 of the constitution enacts that the executive council "shall determine... what military equipment and armaments are fair and reasonable in proportion to the scale of forces laid down in the programme of disarmament, and these limits, when adopted, shall not be exceeded without permission of the executive council." As there is a provision that there shall be just nine votes in the executive council and that each of the five great powers, Great Britain, the United States, France, Italy, and Japan, shall have one vote, it is apparent that the balance of power in the beginning, and for some time at least in the future, will be held in Europe. Alarmists are already bewailing the fate of this country when our army and navy will be reduced by a decree of the executive council to a state where they will be wholly unable to guard our country from invasion. Such a contingency is, of course, impossible, although not at all probable. But the alarmists forget that it is within the province of the European nations to form an alliance without us and that we would be much more likely to awaken their hostility by adopting a policy of isolation. The alarmists forget that the only alternative for remaining out of the league would be to build an army and navy powerful enough to protect this country against the whole of Europe.

Other "conscientious objectors" decry the league constitution because the army and navy of the United States would be pledged to join with those of the other signatory powers in defending the peace of the world whenever it should be attacked. They ask whether America can afford to bind itself to send troops into the Balkans to quell local disturbances, whether we can afford to go to war whenever there is trouble anywhere in Europe or Asia. The best reply to these questions is that the peace of the world is the peace of the United States in the present war. German statesmen generally admit that the war would not have started if it had been known that all the five powers that finally vanquished Germany would be aligned against her, that it would have been evident from the beginning that the disparity of forces was too great to be overcome. In other words, if the five powers forming the first signatories to the League of Nations had been united under a constitution as the one now offered there would have been no world war. With no agreement whatever America threw its whole force into the war on the side of the oppressed peoples. She would do so again if the peace of the world were threatened, with or without an international agreement. The present war proved that America is concerned whenever two other peoples start to fighting; that the time has passed when people can withdraw within their boundaries and have no concern for the rest of the world. But in this, as in the question of armaments, the example is the thing. There is no country strong enough to defend itself against the united force of the rest of the world. The price which Germany must prepare to pay for making such a foolhardy attempt is a sufficient object lesson.

"A League of Nations or chaos." That is the answer to every argument raised by what Mr. Taft has admirably termed the "Little Americans." If the nations of the world, united, cannot annihilate war then our civilization is passing rapidly into its decadence. There is little likelihood that America would ever be called upon to take an active part in another European war.

FATHER TIME.

When our lives are filled with pleasure we observe that time is fleet, and we wish that he would measure shorter strides, with lagging feet. We would have the glad days linger, have the minutes seem like hours; but time halts no foot or finger, tolling on through sun and showers. He is like some loquacious spring hussling for a golden prize; spring and summer, fall and winter, each he brings and each one dies. When our lives are bright and joyous, full of laughter and of song, time seems anxious to annoy us by the way he likes along. When we're pale that naught can deaden, when we heave the bitter sob, then the steps of time are leaden, he is leading on his job. Says the optimist, "The morrow will be gay, so help me John," but we cross a sea of sorrow ere we see the smiling dawn. When we're crossing time's a lagging, he's begrudging every step; he is tired and spent and haggard, and he has no sign of pity. When we are in jail for arson or for sampling too much fizz, vainly does the village parson say that time like lightning is gone, like a hare, it depends, believe me, Myrtle, on our gladness or despair.

"Papa, where is Atoms?" "Atoms? I don't know, my boy. You mean Athens probably." "No, I mean Atoms—the place where everything is blown to." (A Virginian.)

"I never throw away old junk for that would make me feel wasteful." "What do you do with it?" "I give it away and feel charitable." (Boston Transcript.)

It has been well said that the war will have been fought for naught if it does not bring the free peoples of the world into close enough communion that they can unite in an alliance to make others impossible. During the last four years we have seen war and its attendant pestilences in all their bloody horror. The hearts of all free peoples are offering up prayers that this scourge of civilization shall be forever banished. The only hope for achieving this result lies in a League of Nations. Only that league is formed, even though it will rally to its support the instant its authority is challenged; for they will see in it the sole barrier against devastating wars. The Times believes that, by the time the final draft of the constitution of the League of Nations is adopted by the Paris conference, the "Little Americans" will themselves be convinced that it offers the sole refuge from the raids of organized governments and the organized bandits of the Bolshevik type. A League of Nations opens the way to permanent peace and protection. Unless we Americans attain that result and insure the future safety of all free peoples, we shall have lost all the ideals for which we poured out our blood and treasure in the war of wars.

MAKING MONEY ELASTIC.

State banks and trust companies in California have long been hampered and fettered by laws which prevented natural expansion; kept funds whirling round and round on a half-mile track, while national banks were permitted the greater freedom of the mile course with well-banked turns. The time has come when our money must do a full day's work. It must become what the bankers call "elastic." This does not mean that currency or credit is to be stretched to anything like the snapping point, but under the present law there are millions of dollars held by savings banks and trust companies within such close limitation that the dollars can work only on Saturday hours with frequent holidays.

At almost every session of the Legislature various kinds of banking relief is proposed, but because the subject is usually presented in so complex a form the lawmakers are afraid of it and skid skillfully around the "obstruction" leaving the conditions just as they were before.

The California Bankers' Association has taken the matter in hand and through its Legislative Committee will recommend legislation of a corrective nature at the present session; legislation that is said to have the approval of the State Superintendent of Banks and the Federal Reserve Board.

Under the terms of this proposed legislation State banks will be permitted, if they see fit, to join the Federal reserve system and to share in its benefits. The reserves required of State institutions is not materially changed, but State banks may keep a certain proportion of their statutory reserves with the Federal reserve. Savings banks, which under the present law can employ only out of their deposits for commercial discounts, would be permitted to employ 20 per cent. Borrowing restrictions are modified to permit of redcounting with the Federal reserve bank, and national banks are allowed to assume fiduciary relations.

The Federal reserve banking system has stood the hard test of war, with its attendant heavy strain of unusual government financing. It has proven a safe and adequate means of giving elasticity to our currency and has added strength and safety to our national banking system; benefits from which State banks and banking institutions not included within the national organization have been deprived.

The proposed law looks like a move in the right direction. Apparently no restrictive factor of safety is eliminated, while large sums of money will be released for legitimate expansion and financing. It will enable the banks of California to respond instantly and safely to the rapidly changing demands of reconstruction times, and (by reason of such added elasticity) to facilitate business and aid development.

DUNDEE TAKES BAIRD INTO CAMP.

SETTO OF THE WHIRLWIND VA-RIETY—TRIBUTE TO VAN LOAN.

Jim Dundee was some fighting tiger at Jack Doyle's pavilion last night where he took Earl Baird into camp. The setto was of the whirlwind kind without a moment's breathing spell throughout the fast rounds. The San Francisco boxer, as usual, to his fast footwork and was on his toes at all times. Baird was at him all the time and never gave an inch of ground, but Dundee's footwork appeared to dangle the fighting lieutenant.

The first round found Dundee with a slight lead. He scored a hard hit to the stomach about the middle of this session and snapped over a few right short right counters. His blows appeared to be better timed than those of Earl, although the latter scored a time or two with his fast, twisting, short rights to the head.

Baird came back like a demon in the second round and registered a shade. Once he staggered the Frisco lad with a sharp right cross. He repeated a moment later with a dandy left to the cheek. Dundee splashed to the canvas, but the fall was more of an overbalance than the effect of a blow. The third was a whopper of a give and take affair with both boys working for dear life with right and left swings. Dundee now and then resorted to his opponent's glove and was called to account for it by a number of the army lad's adherents. The round was even.

The finale will long be remembered in the famous pavilion. Baird rushed at Dundee like an enraged bull, only to be met with a hard right cross to the jaw. Angered by the sting, he cast his arm aside and waded in happy-go-lucky. As he missed a vicious right stab, Dundee called him with a right to the head that almost spun the lieutenant on his pink. From then on to the end Dundee landed often and true and had the session by a big margin. The referee raised Dundee's right and a torrent of applause. The decision was just.

One of the cleverest mixups ever in a long time between 115 pounds was the snappy tussle between Charlie Russell and Young Farnell. The set-to was a fine exhibition of footwork with both lads swinging blow for blow throughout. Russell Windsor could not choose between the boys as he called it a draw.

Frankie dante put it on Taddie. Frankie good and proper, Frankie is rounding to his best form and should be a hard proposition for boys at his weight from now on. Frankie's platoon right was working true and he sent Taddie sprawling a number of times with clean deliveries. He outboxed Taddie at all states and the result was never in doubt. Frankie let loose everything he knew but it availed him nothing as Garcia easily proved he was his master.

One of the worst decisions ever rendered at Vernon was the raising of Mike Doll's arm in the third round. Mike fought Billy Wilson and did all he did do. Billy put the windmill fighter square on his back in the third. Doll instead of sitting down for a spell, scrambled to his feet and wobbled all over the ring. In the last round Wilson mauled Mike's face into a distorted doughnut yet at the end of the session Referee Windsor awarded the decision to the beaten Doll and a cloudburst of boos and catcalls.

Tommy Nelson whipped Jimmy Barry and Louis Garcia trounced Freddie Harris.

Between one of the bouts Frank Keenan, moving picture star, paid most touching tribute to Charlie Van Loan, magazine writer, died in Philadelphia, several days ago. He was a friend of Keenan's and as he left the lights went out and the changed a requiem of ten strains with all present uncovered.

OIL WORKERS TO DISCUSS WAGES.

Meet at Bakersfield Today to Consider New Scale.

Union Officials Differ in View of the Situation.

Question of Strike Hinges on Outcome of Gathering.

Whether the workers in the oil fields will accept the new wage scale announced here on Monday by the Federal Oil Inspection Board for California, will be decided at a meeting at Bakersfield today of representatives of practically all unions in the industry. The new scale grants substantial increases to all oil workers, but not, it is said, in just the terms the workers had sought.

Between 12,000 and 14,000 men are involved in the controversy, but there will be a strike now, as announced likely a short time ago, is believed by Leo Scott, vice-president of the Oil Workers' State Board. Mr. Scott said last night that he believes most of the workers will favor accepting the proposed scale.

A number of other union officials, however, expressed themselves as believing that a strike may be called unless the proposed schedule is agreed to meet their views. One of these yesterday characterized the action of the Federal board as "entirely inadequate," and a "keen disappointment" to the men.

TAKE QUICK ACTION.

That the oil workers were prepared to take quick action of some kind as soon as the findings of the inspection board were announced was in the fact that early yesterday a call was officially sent throughout the State asking that delegates assemble at Bakersfield today for a conference. It will be the object of the delegates to study the findings of the Federal board's findings, to learn the views of the workers themselves, and to turn to their own locals with a full understanding of the situation.

The oil board has committed the error which we must fear," said the union official yesterday. "They have catered to the minority and neglected the desires and demands of the majority."

It will be noted that drillers, who are now receiving $1 a day are to receive $1.50, according to the new scale, while the man receiving $1.50 a day will receive an increase of $1.00. The demands of the workers were predicated on the increasing cost of living and the $1.50 a day man pays the same price for necessities as the higher paid workers.

THE ALLEGED REASON.

The reason is obvious. They are to satisfy the employees whom they consider indispensable to the production of oil, feeling that the oil worker's place can be filled only by their organizations. They are merely seeking to satisfy the majority of a few, hoping to enlist the aid in winning favor with the majority.

It was announced that the report of the convention will be discussed at Bakersfield at a further special meeting, which has been called for tomorrow night. Bailing has been in progress in the Kern River fields for some time, but the boxes have not been opened. It is considered that the following tomorrow night's meeting will be re-organized and that the result may express the opinion of all unions.

There are at present slightly more than 100 union oil workers in the Kern River fields, with a number estimated at between 2500 and 3000 in the San Joaquin fields. Coal miners have a membership near the 200 mark, while the Santa Maria miners is said to be well organized.

CARPENTER IS BANKRUPT.

C. A. Albright, a carpenter of this city, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court yesterday. He gives his liabilities as $10,000, of which $2000 is secured, and $1800.25 is unsecured.

KICKED AT DOUBLE HOME.

Mrs. Solidad was willing to care for the children of the woman with whom her husband, Joe Rivera, said he was in love, but when he brought her to his home, Mrs. Rivera objected to being in the same house with her. This caused a separation. Mrs. Rivera was granted a divorce yesterday.

Penalment for Speeding.

Stephen Kerkhoff, 18-year-old son of Herman H. Kerkhoff, wealthy screen and sash manufacturer, was hurrying home to 1213 West Adams street on his motorcycle from the Los Angeles High School yesterday afternoon. Motorcyclist Officer Wenzel saw young Kerkhoff just as young Kerkhoff saw the officer. Kerkhoff increased his speed from forty-seven to sixty miles an hour, the officer says, but was overtaken six blocks farther on Wilshire boulevard.

Magistrate Richardson decided that $100 or thirty days in jail was the proper sentence, and after Kerkhoff spent fifteen fruitless minutes in attempting to get his parents on the telephone he was escorted to the city detention room.

Civil Service Board Asks Bagby to Support King Allegation.

E. H. Bagby, secretary of the Soldiers and Sailors' Readjustment Bureau, has been requested to appear before the City Civil Service Commission next Tuesday forenoon and make a statement in regard to his verbal allegation that Carl V. King, acting secretary and examiner for the commission, has been disconcerted to service men who have sought city employment.

The matter of choosing a new secretary for the commission has been indefinitely postponed. Chairman Pearson stated at yesterday's meeting that Mrs. E. R. Brainerd, president of the commission, was unable to be present because of illness and that she had requested that no action be taken in that direction until she is able to attend.

COURSE FOR NATURE LOVERS.

A course in Californian birds, mammals and reptiles was begun by the University of California extension last evening in room 266, Union League Building. Dr. H. L. Miller of the State Normal School is conducting the course. A collection of lantern slides, made from photographs taken in the open, is being used to illustrate the lectures. This course is designed, not only for teachers, but for nature lovers who wish to obtain authentic information concerning the wild-animal life of California.

SHIPYARD BLACKSMITHS FIND TROUBLE.

Was Only a Pay Roll Slip.

Blacksmiths who walked out of the Southwestern Shipbuilding Company's yard at the harbor yesterday on strike because of a misunderstanding regarding the amount of back pay due one of their number, will go back to work in a body at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The trouble, it was agreed, was a little error in the pay roll affecting one man, which was satisfactorily explained by Manager David Hollywood.

Union men contended that the man was discharged because he had put in a claim for back pay due him under the Macer Board agreement. The Metal Trades Council had not been consulted by the blacksmiths and the strike was purely local within the blacksmiths' local and did not affect any of the other shipyard workers.

SAY AUTO DRIVER WAS DRUNK.

On behalf of Frank D. de War, a returned war veteran, a complaint was issued yesterday by Deputy District Attorney Heinecke against Orville Tharpe for driving an automobile while intoxicated. Tharpe, who was arraigned in justice court, is alleged to have driven his car into the A. C. A. Hills on Saturday at Hill street and Slauson avenue.

CONTENDS PIPE LINE IS PUBLIC UTILITY.

The question whether an oil pipe line is a common carrier is one of the points involved in an application brought before the State Railroad Commission yesterday by J. W. Jamison, who is engaged in oil production near this city. Mr. Jamison stated that he has no pipe line facilities and that the Producer's Transport Company, which has an available line, refused to handle his product. He contended that the pipe line company is a public utility.

The application was taken under advisement by President E. O. Edgerton of the commission.

FOR STEALING AUTO TIRES.

Cisco Dwyer was unable yesterday to explain to the police why he had several stolen bicycle tires wrapped about his body when he was arrested after the burglary of an East First-street store. He was held to answer by Justice Forbes.

BANDIT TEAM CONFESSES.

Angels for the last six months, saying that her husband is now in Kansas City.

Apprehension of the pair was made possible by the identification of Bickoff as a man who has been attempting to secure charity from Mrs. Gubin. He first made his appearance at the Gubin store, 423 South Broadway a week ago, stating that he was a victim of tuberculosis and desired to enter a hospital. His story interested Mrs. Gubin and on Monday she had made arrangements for him to go to a local sanatorium. Instead of going to the hospital, Mrs. Gubin stated that Monday afternoon he again appeared at the store and looted minutes in attempting to get his parents on the telephone he was escorted to the city detention room.

When the man and woman appeared at the Gubin home Monday night, Mrs. Gubin believed that they were the man and woman who had been reported lately which have been committed by a man and woman, the police believe that they will be able to connect the two now in custody as the perpetrators.

As several robberies have been reported lately which have been committed by a man and woman, the police believe that they will be able to connect the two now in custody as the perpetrators.

After being questioned by Capt. Home, the man and woman were ordered to enter a clothes closet on the second floor that the man spoke, at the same time giving Mrs. Gubin a good profile view of his face.

When confronted by Mrs. Gubin last night, Bickoff pleaded with her not to press the charges of robbery, stating that he had been forced to it by his female accomplice. Mrs. Gubin refused to listen to his plea.

On Bickoff's person was found $106 and the Gubin jewelry, which included a diamond bar pin, a three-stone diamond dinner ring with two of the largest stones missing, and a diamond and ruby cluster ring.

STAKE CAMPAIGN.

Councilmen Criswell and Conrad Take out Nomination Papers.

By taking out their nomination papers yesterday afternoon Councilmen Criswell and Conrad officially opened their campaigns for reelection.

In that connection it is recalled that Conrad was one of the opponents of the Sunday closing law which was adopted last year and then repealed, while Criswell was one of its staunchest supporters.

COURSE FOR NATURE LOVERS.

A course in Californian birds, mammals and reptiles was begun by the University of California extension last evening in room 266, Union League Building. Dr. H. L. Miller of the State Normal School is conducting the course. A collection of lantern slides, made from photographs taken in the open, is being used to illustrate the lectures. This course is designed, not only for teachers, but for nature lovers who wish to obtain authentic information concerning the wild-animal life of California.

SHIPYARD BLACKSMITHS FIND TROUBLE.

Blacksmiths who walked out of the Southwestern Shipbuilding Company's yard at the harbor yesterday on strike because of a misunderstanding regarding the amount of back pay due one of their number, will go back to work in a body at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The trouble, it was agreed, was a little error in the pay roll affecting one man, which was satisfactorily explained by Manager David Hollywood.

Union men contended that the man was discharged because he had put in a claim for back pay due him under the Macer Board agreement. The Metal Trades Council had not been consulted by the blacksmiths and the strike was purely local within the blacksmiths' local and did not affect any of the other shipyard workers.

SAY AUTO DRIVER WAS DRUNK.

On behalf of Frank D. de War, a returned war veteran, a complaint was issued yesterday by Deputy District Attorney Heinecke against Orville Tharpe for driving an automobile while intoxicated. Tharpe, who was arraigned in justice court, is alleged to have driven his car into the A. C. A. Hills on Saturday at Hill street and Slauson avenue.
